All Branford is familiar with Parker Quality
Eye Glasses and Spectacles. The name Parker is widely known as the synonym of perfection in eyeglass comfort. The Kryptok Patent for near and distant vision are without doubt the greatest triumph of modern lense construction. They have no unsightly seams, no gummy cement and, though costing a little more, in the end they are not as expensive as the older forms. No trouble to explain their merits.

BLACKSTONE LIBRARY.

The above cut represents the Blackstone Memorial Library. It was presented to the town of Branford by Timothy B. Blackstone, of Chicago, as a memorial of his father, James Blackstone, who was an honored and life-long resident of Branford. Although some project of the kind had been often talked of in Branford, its first real inception dates from the efforts of Rev. M. K. Bailey, then rector of Trinity Church, to found a reading room or center for the younger men of the town to assemble. This project meeting with but slow financial response, a committee was formed, consisting of Alfred E. Hammer, Lester J. Nichols and Dr. C. W. Gaylord, to confer personally or by letter with several who having gone out from Branford might will have an interest in their native town. Out of these inquiries developed the offer of a gift to the town of a free library building and library. It was opened for use in 1896.

The building is 162 feet long by 129 feet wide and consists of two stories and basement. In the basement are the books least used, a store room, and the boiler room. On the first floor are the reading, reference, catalogue and librarian's rooms, a stack room with shelves for 20,000 books, and a lecture hall with stage and gallery. On the second floor are the directors' retiring and art rooms.

The reading and reference rooms are liberally supplied with the best literature of the day, and their use, together with that of the library, is free to all inhabitants of Branford.

A branch library and delivery station was opened at Stony Creek, February 3, 1900.

Librarian, Charles N. Baxter; Assistant Librarian, Mrs. Harriet E. Palmer; Assistants, Bertha R. Gaylord, Anna E. Gaylord, Vega L. Reynolds, Florence Haskin.
